Area information:

Nassfeld is located in Franz Klammer's home region of Carinthia in Austria's sunny south. While most Brits have only recently started discovering this area its situation on the border between three countries means that Nassfeld has a great mix of nationalities.

Five cable cars, three six-seater chair lifts, four four-seater chair lifts and 18 drag lifts add up to a capacity of 44,000 people per hour. Queues at the lifts? Not in Nassfeld!

The Millennium Express gondola is the longest in Europe and takes just 17 minutes to transport you to an altitude in excess of 2,000m. From here you will experience stunning views of both the Austrian and Italian Alps and have access to over 110km of snow sure pistes to suite all levels of skier with the option of some great off-piste into Italy.

Snowboarders are very well catered for in Nassfeld as well with two parks with quarter pipes, kickers, table tops and a snow cross park.
